

Alister

Meet 12-year-old Alister!

Alister can be described as energetic, kind, creative, and smart. Alister enjoys playing games with his friends and has recently joined a card club at school. His favorite classes at school are science, math, and art! Alister enjoys building Legos, riding his scooter, spending time with his friends, and playing board games. Alister's favorite movies are Spiderman and the Transformer movies. When Alister grows up, he hopes to become a surgeon, FBI agent, or a biologist. Alister prefers siblings and pets in his forever family.

Alister's team is recommending a one or two-parent household that is able to provide consistent routine and structure. The team is open to all two-parent households, regardless of gender, although believe that Alister would do best in a male/female household or a male/male household. There are no concerns with other children or pets in the home. Alister's team is currently accepting inquiries nationwide.
