

Khloe

Meet Khloe! Khloe is an adventurous, artistic, and thoughtful 15-year-old whose warm, charismatic personality draws people in. She values meaningful relationships and enjoys expressing her creativity through makeup and music from a wide variety of genres. Fall is her favorite season—she appreciates the colorful leaves, cooler temperatures, and holiday celebrations. She also enjoys thought-provoking films with rich stories and meaningful themes.

Khloe hopes for a family who will take time to know her, share new experiences, and support the relationships and interests that matter to her. She imagines living in an urban community with siblings, a family dog, and a space of her own where she can relax and express her personal style.

Khloe's team is seeking a committed two-parent family who will celebrate who she is, recognize her many strengths, and provide the consistency, encouragement, and unconditional support every young person deserves. A family in which Khloe would be the oldest child may be the best fit. Pets are welcome, and a dog could be a wonderful addition to the home she envisions. Khloe also has important connections in North Dakota, and her future family will need to value and support those lasting relationships. Her team welcomes inquiries from families nationwide who are ready to learn more about Khloe and consider whether they could offer the belonging, stability, and lifelong connection she deserves.
